LOCAL SHIPMENTS OF GRAIN.

Decision of the Interstate Commerce Commission in a Railroad Case.

The Interstate Commerce Commission ves terday, in an opinion by Commissioner Prouty, announced its decision in the unit ter of alleged unlawful rates and practice in the transportation of grain and grain products by the Atchisen, Topeka & Santa

Pe Railway Company and others. Enipments of grain were carried to Ran-mas City, Mo., from points west thereof at local rates, and quantities of grain were afterward reshipped and rebilled from Kansas City to Chicago or other destina tions at the balance of the established shipment to Chicago or other ultimate destinations, instead of the higher local rate in force from Kansus City to such

There was no agreement for through the orniginal point of shipment, no other destination than Kansas City was named and, upon carriage of the grain to that point and delivery to consignees, the trans-portation was completed, and the local rate in effect to Kansas City was paid; but the other owner of grain at Kansas City to ship from Kansas City to Chicago and other points at the "balance of the through rate" upon presentation of the paid ex-pense bill to Kausas City and certification by a joint agent of carriers at Kansas City.

I nder this "expense bill" practice it was practicable, through transfer of expense bills, to secure a lower "balance of through rate" than would result from deducting the local rate between the actual point of origin and Kansas City from the through rate between said point of origin and the final destination, and other rate manipu letions were possible.

Held, That such shipment and reship ment did not constitute a through ship ment from the point of origin to the poin of final destination, and grain so shipped and reshipped was not entitled to the benefit of the through rate in force.

the point of origin to Kansas City was local, resulting in the grain becoming Kansas City grain, and the fact that it had come from a point farther west was no reason for applying on shipments of such grain from Kansas City anyless or different rate than was in force from Kansas City. No opinion upon the practice of billing or reconsigning or holding in transit, if the shipment is a thorough shipment upon a through rate, is expressed.

Skeptics Turn Believers and are Cured.—"When I read that Dr. Agnew's Catarrh's Powder could relieve Catarrh in ten minutes, I was far from being convinced. I tried it—a single puff through less than being convinced. I tried it—a single puff through pain over the eyes, and cleansed the masal passages. Today I am free from Catarrh."

No opinion upon the practice of billing or reconsigning or holding in transit, if the shipment is a thorough shipment upon a through rate, is expressed. Held further, That the shipment from half was in open session, and this brief interval was about as uninteresting a eriod as has been tolerated this session. Very early in the day's session there was a disposition to cut off the Union Pacific Railroad debate. This question, while of great public moment, has been spun out great length. The minds of Senators have been made up (and have been since ast session) so that argument which is now only being repeated from the last ession will have nothing to do with the final vote on the Harris resolution. The opponents of the Cleveland policy as to the road and its sale are fighting hard to have this Congress undo the wrong which they allege has been done. The advocates of the proposed sale to the Fitzgerald syndicate are charged with de siring to delay action until the courts may be able to pass such a decree as will

One of the most interesting of the surgestions of the day was when Mr. Quay moved for an adjournment until Monday. This showed that there need be expected nothing from the conferces until Monday, at least. It also showed that the Senate, at least the Republican side, is indisposed to talk about anything that will even indicate the opinions of Senators on Japan, Hawaii Cuba, England, Spain or any place case

The routine was short and dry. Senator Hawley rose to a personal exanation, in which he protested against the Washington Post accusing him of dis-courtesy to a brother Senator in certain sublications in the Courant. The Courant was a paper, he said, which published its news with freedom and courage. It was an annoyance to him to be charged by wspapers with views and statements for which he was not responsible. Wail Street Yesterday.

New York, July 16 .- Much the same in fluences that have been creating a built stock market lately were at work t.day. There was considerable selling, but all offerings were well absorbed, with the market holding very steady. Good crop reports, further indications of a foreign demand for our grain, illustrated particolarly by purchases of wheat yesterday for export to Argentine, and the approach ing settlement of the tariff question were among the favorable factors. The Gov-ernment statement of exports and imports for the fiscal year ended June 30 attracted attention, showing a total of exports never equaled. The nearest approach was in 1892, when the United States were making heavy shipments of grain to feed Europe, which was suffering from a series of deficient harvests, a condition existing at the present time. Cabled advices indicating that the Porte had backed down and was ready to accept the basis of peace preposed by the powers, did not appear to have materially affected the London market. The cable quotations showed only triffing changes.

Decided interest continued in local se curities, both on the exchange and in the so-called outside market. Metropolitan Traction 5s and Brooklyn Rapid Transit issues were prominent in the dealings and larger caliber are waiting for the solu-tion of the tariff problem by the people at the Capitol. The results there are cer-tainly still in doubt, though there is the intimation that there has been some newspaper exaggeration as to the character of the differences in the conference co mittee, and the possibility of their arrangement by compromise. The latest news leaves the matter very much a mystery, however.

Same continues to be the leading feature of the market, if a really dull market, such as yesterday's, may be said to have any features. The stock was irregular yesterday, but appeared to rally with comparative ease after selling or attempts to de ress the price. There is a considerable party in Wall street of the opinion that ugar stock is destined to react to 133, or even lower, a movement which would not be surprising after its sharp summer ise. However, there has been a large in-vestment and absorption of the stock in he last year, including, especially, the great purchases of the Standard Oil interests, and manipulation is not as easy as it has been at times formerly. There s probably as great a certainty that 12 per cent dividends will be paid on this ock as in anything else in the market.

The story is out again that Omaha is likely to sell considerably higher-
